EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY – CASUAL ACTIVITY INSTRUCTOR

Outer Limits Adventure Fitness is a recognised leader in the outdoor recreation industry. We are passionate about adventure and the outdoors and aim to instil that same love into the next generation by providing challenging, memorable and safe day activities and camp experiences. We also specialise in and run large-scale sporting events throughout Queensland.

If you'd also love to spend your working days helping kids engage in the outdoors, you're in luck! We have an opening for the right person to join our team, commencing in February 2024 with training to be held during the week beginning 12 February 2024. The successful applicant will be passionate about the outdoors, working with children and not be afraid of a bit of hard work. Please note that flexible working hours and availability (particularly during the school term) is necessary as a lot of our school activities and camps run over consecutive days. Additionally, a good level of fitness is required due to the physical nature of the role.

What we offer:

- Above Award wages;
- Full job-specific training (including additional training opportunities for the right candidate);
- The opportunity to get paid while living your best life in the outdoors; and
- Additional opportunities (including a leadership position, further training and the equivalent of fulltime hours) for the right candidate.

Key responsibilities of the position include:

- Facilitating activity programs in accordance with our policies and procedures;
- Preparing individual and group outdoor recreation experiences;
- Demonstrating and teaching basic body movements and skills;
- Supervising and maintaining control of individuals and groups;
- Providing advice on safety measures and risk minimisation strategies for activities;
- Responding to emergencies during activities, including providing first aid assistance;
- General food preparation, cooking and cleaning duties;
- Assisting in equipment maintenance and care.
